

1st International Conference on POULTRY Processing November 1-2, 2017

ORGANIZED BY

Department of Poultry Production,
University of Veterinary and Animal
Sciences, Lahore.

Introduction

Pakistan is the 11th largest poultry meat producer in the world and poultry meat is contributing 35-40% in total meat consumption of the nation. Owing to lack of proper processing and wet market dependency, this industry has to face swift price fluctuation around the year. To cater with the consumer needs of persistent, safe, ready to cook and ready to eat products, the poultry meat processing needs to be encouraged.

As the processing and value additions not only can overcome the price fluctuations as well as may enhance the poultry meat consumption. Although, processing and value addition phenomena are essential for prosperity of Poultry industry yet sufficient information is to be dispensed; Halal slaughtering, food safety measures, feed withdrawal practices, medicine's residuals, live weight shrinkages, use of salt and other additives. This conference will focus on capacity enhancement of academia / industrial personals to equip themselves with latest knowledge of poultry processing along with human resources development
