14th March, 2021

An oath-taking is a solemn declaration or undertaking that calls upon God to witness the truthfulness of the statement a person is making. On 14th March 2021, the oath-taking ceremony of Vets Care Club was arranged in an online session on Google Meet. The members of the new cabinet of Vets Care Club took a pledge to serve the club with full enthusiasm, honesty and loyalty with an aim of uplifting the society and veterinary profession.

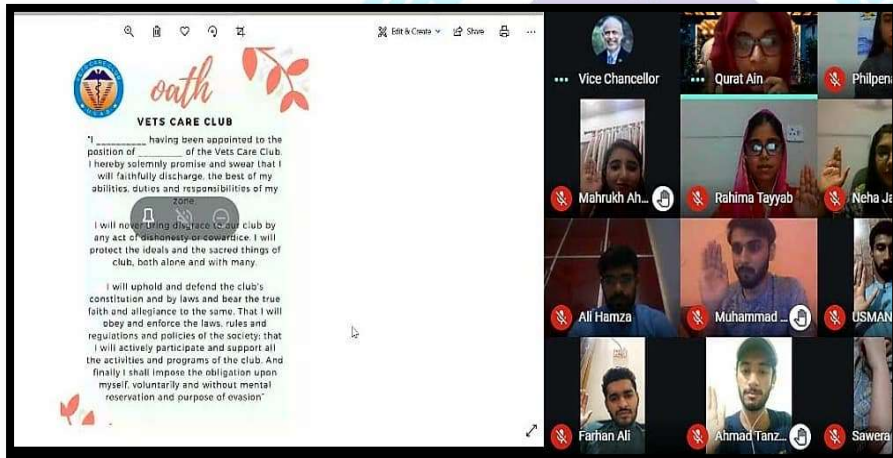

The ceremony commenced with the great name of Allah Almighty when Hafiz Abdur Rehman, student of DVM 1st semester, recited a few verses from the Holy Quran. Worthy Vice Chancellor, UVAS, Prof. Dr. Nasim Ahmed and Patron of Vets Care Club Prof. Dr. Aneela Zameer Durani were the chief guests of the event. Miss Philpena Rafique, newly appointed General Secretary of VCC, inaugurated the ceremony with a video about the efforts, achievements and team work of team Vets Care Club over the past years.

Dr. Mohsin Bhatti, the President of VCO, announced Miss Quartulain Anjum as the President and Miss Mahrukh Ahmad as Vice President of Vets Care Club for the year 2021-2022. Dr. Waseem Shaukat, General Secretary of VCO, announced the cabinet members with their designations.

The new cabinet members took oath of loyalty and diligence from Prof. Dr. Nasim Ahmad and swore to utilize their best efforts for the betterment of the society.

Prof. Dr. Nasim Ahmad appreciated the past efforts of VCC and admired the revolutionary ideas that VCC brought into working. He praised the dedicated efforts of VCC in conducting regular and informative co-curricular activities for veterinary students including camps and seminars which he deemed necessary for professional grooming of students.

Prof. Dr. Aneela Zameer Duranni also congratulated and applauded the efforts of VCC in bringing all the veterinary societies together. She admired the strenuous work by team VCC in the successful arrangement of all the past events of society.

Miss Quart-ul-ain Anjum addressed her cabinet and pledged to serve Vets Care Club with devotion and courage. She thanked the chief guests for their valuable time and promised to come up with more innovative ideas for future events of society.

The newly appointed Finance Secretary, Miss Neha Javed presented the thankyou note. She thanked Prof. Dr. Nasim Ahmad and Prof. Dr. Aneela Zameer Duranni for joining and sharing their words of encouragement with the team. She also thanked all the participants and alumni of Vets Care Club for attending the ceremony.
