

REPRESENTATION OF UVAS AT PAKISTAN CATTLE SHOW 2016 (MODEL CATTLE MARKET SHEIKHUPURA)

EVENT REPORT

Various students from different veterinary related societies of UVAS (Vet Crescent Society, Vets Care Club and Savers) in collaboration with Department of Clinical Medicine and Surgery represented University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences at Pakistan Cattle Show 2016 on November 17, 2016 in Model Cattle Market Sheikhupura. The show was organized by Lahore Division Cattle Market Management Company and was based on milking competitions, breed shows and awareness seminars.

Shahid Hassan Sharif (M.Phil student CLMS) was keynote speaker from UVAS. He delivered an awareness seminar on Mastitis, focusing mainly on evident clinical signs, types, precautionary measures and diagnostic tests. This seminar highlighted different applied concepts and was highly appreciated by the attendees. Moreover, students organized a stall disseminating information regarding key veterinary aspects of Livestock management, awareness against infectious diseases and services provided by UVAS. Free consultancy was also provided.

We extend our gratitude to Lahore Division Cattle Market Management Company for facilitating us at Pakistan Cattle Show 2016.
